

God Is Able to Make
Unexpected Change in People

God cares deeply for all people, even those we despise.

What do I need to turn from? How is God asking me to shove myself in a different direction?

Do I believe that God can and will cause radical change in the lives of others because of my obedience?

Real change is practical not philosophical