

Seeing the Forest Through the Trees

Ruth Chapter 4

Sometimes the action of God in our lives is not evident until we stop and think about how the details are fitting into a bigger picture. Much like in the book of Ruth, God does not always announce when He is working. As we work through this final chapter, have the following questions in your mind.

How has God been working in the details of your life?

Zoom out. How do those details fit into the Big Picture?

What part of your life needs redeeming?
